

Build Back Better - Oakville's Social Economy

 In 2021 The Foundation has aligned its business plan to the United Nations Sustainable Development Goals

Priorities:

1. Community resilience and charitable sector recovery

Our purpose “Build Community Through Philanthropy”, community investments and current focus on community resiliency align to SDG #11: Sustainable Cities and Communities.

2. Local opportunities in education, employment and the social economy

Strategic programs like Community Classroom and the Community Education Awards Hub are designed to provide accessible and quality education from primary to post secondary for all, SDG #4: Quality Education. Homeward Bound Halton, Halton Youth Collective Program, PRI & the Investment Readiness Program create employment opportunities and build our social economy, SDG #8: Decent Work and Economic Growth.

3. Reducing inequities in our operations, and in our community

The Foundation's value of “Respect” includes commitments to Diversity and Inclusion, work on Truth and Reconciliation, and current anti-racism agenda align to SDG#10: Reduced Inequalities. Our value of “Collaboration” and collaborative initiatives across priorities aligns to SDG#17: Partnerships for the Goals.
