

Nominees for Election:

Sukhwinder Randhawa, CPA, CA, CFP

Sukhwinder Randhawa is a Partner at Henderson Partners LLP, a leading Oakville-based firm of chartered professional accountants and advisors. With extensive experience in tax, assurance, and advisory services, Sukhwinder works closely with owner-managed businesses, high-net-worth individuals and families, trusts, and not-for-profit organizations.

His practice spans personal and corporate tax planning, cross-border tax compliance, estate planning, and corporate structuring. He is a member of the firm's Senior Leadership Group, where he plays an active role in firm governance, technology strategy, and operational improvement.

Sukhwinder has served as a member of the Oakville Community Foundation's Finance, Risk & Audit Committee since 2025, contributing his professional expertise in financial oversight, risk management, and governance to support the Foundation's mission of strengthening the Oakville community through impactful philanthropy.

Outside of work, Sukhwinder is a dedicated family man and is passionate about giving back to the communities he serves.

Nominees for Re-Election:

Lisa Kohler:

With experience in the public and non-profit sectors, Lisa is recognized as a strategic climate leader. She uniquely combines her ability to effectively navigate social and political dynamics with a broad technical and analytical skill set to develop and deliver on complex, cross-cutting strategic initiatives. With training in partnership brokering, collaborative governance and continuous improvement she has built a reputation as a network builder and connector, managing highly engaged and effective teams both corporately and with partners that include local governments, First Nations, Provincial and Federal Ministries, private and public sector organizations, academic institutions and NGOs.

With a focus on Halton Region she has worked closely with municipal and other partners to advance community interests and issues. She is a results-driven storyteller, leveraging her skill set to strategically transform complex technical concepts and data into transparent and effective reports and presentations for a wide variety of audiences. Her ability to effectively lead both teams and organizations is rounded out with her sharp sense of financial and business acumen, with experience in managing all aspects of an organization including oversight of staff, budgets; compliance of financial related policies and frameworks; and the development and management of corporate and financial partnerships. Lisa is driven by her passion for climate action and opportunities to help drive change to support a sustainable future.

Lisa proudly serves as the Chair on the Green Communities Canada National Board of Directors, and is a member of the Oakville Community Foundation Board of Directors. Lisa has been part of many Communities of Practice, including the Tamarack Institute's Climate Transition Cohort and the Oakville Community Foundation Climate Commitment Task Force. For the last five years Ms. Kohler has enjoyed being a member of the City of Toronto's Urban Forestry Grant Review Panel.

Ronan Ryan:

Ronan Ryan is Executive Director, CIBC Foundation, leading a purpose-driven team committed to creating a world where everyone's ambitions are empowered. His work spans the Foundation's key focus areas: cancer initiatives, children's programs, and financial health.

Previously, Ronan served as CEO of the Alzheimer Society of Canada, championing the rights of those living with Alzheimer's and dementia, their families, and caregivers — driving research strategy and funding innovative work across Canada.

Prior to that, as Chief Marketing & Development Officer at the Canadian Red Cross, he transformed the organization's fundraising model, raising $1BN in five years, led digital transformation, and launched the organization's first Transformational Giving campaign. He also oversaw commercial operations delivering first aid and water safety training to over 1.6 million Canadians annually.

Ronan served previously as Chair of the Board of Imagine Canada and is currently a Board Director and Chair of the Impact Investment Committee at the Oakville Community Foundation. He lives in Oakville with his wife, three children, and dog Amber.
